New Britain here to-day. Bone's ex-White Wings will be the visitors to-morrow.

McCarthy pitched well enough to win an ordinary game, but the Authors punched their hits on him.

This is the second time that Bannister has handed a defeat to the locals.

Big Bill Massey who formerly played with the Holyokes, but who refused to sign up this season, has been purchased by Lowell New England league team.

New Haven were dubbed "White Wings" last year because they wore white suits on the road. This year the regalia has been changed, black being substituted. Up state papers think that they ought to be called the "Ravens" or "Undertakers." How about dubbing them the Black Hands?

Tommy Downey, the former Orator, assumed a new role in baseball yesterday, when he went behind the bat in the twelfth inning of the Boston Cincinnati game. Both Catchers McLean and Roth were ejected from the game for disputing the umpire's decision, there being no catcher left on the Red team.

Notice how the Ponies have been climbing. Last week found them in last place having a grand fight with New Haven, now take a look at them, snuggled safely in second place, threatening the Senators. They had a bad start, but when they once got going it was the same old story—victory.

It was the young fellows on the team who brought the home town victory yesterday. Meyers, O'Hara, McCormack and Murray, furnished the sensational with their trusty furniture.

Don't fail to be on hand to-morrow afternoon to see the New Haven team. There will be the added attraction of the "Brothers" C. Co. vs. Bridgeport Brass Co., which teams will open the Industrial League season.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Detroit, May 14.—As though imbued with an entirely new spirit, the American League representatives of Manhattan came back in an astonishing fashion and trampled the colors of the Tigers in the dust in the third and last game of this series.

In the Highlanders' half of the eighth they smashed victory from what looked like certain defeat. Up to that time Detroit led the way to the front, 3 to 0. Then the deluge of base hits came, and before the Highlanders had been snuffed out six runs were made.

Detroit, 1000010101—12-0 New York, 0000000000—0-11-2 Batteries: Suggs, Willett, Donovan and Schmidt; Manning, Warhop and Blair.

Cleveland, May 14.—The Red Sox cheered old Cy Young when he took the mound yesterday, then gave him an unmerciful clubbing, winning 18 to 1 on seventeen hits combined with four Nap errors. The score: Cleveland, 000000010—15-4 Boston, 10100000000—1-15-2 Batteries: Young and Easterly; Morgan and Carrigan.

Chicago, May 14.—The Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators played seventeen innings to a tie here yesterday afternoon, the game being called on account of darkness. The score: Washington, 00000010000000—1-6-2 Chicago, 00001000000000—15-1 Batteries: Johnson, Burns and Moran; White and Sullivan.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, May 14.—The Giants played magnificent ball yesterday, being very effective with the willow and downing the Cubs in a grand battle. It was the terrific batting of Murray who had a trio of safeties, one good for three stations, and the timely hitting of Meyers, O'Hara and McCorkack that won the day. The score: Chicago, 000000010—1-4 New York, 100200100—4-6-0 Batteries: Kroh, Hageman and Moran; Matthewson and Meyers.
